

Carol Moorhead is a watercolor artist residing in a 195 year old miner's cottage in historic downtown Galena, Illinois, since February 2023. She's a mother of 2 grown children, grandmother to 3, wife to her husband of 12 years, and doggie mom to the best of the "who's-a-good-boy", Dexter, a 10 year old Schnorkie who enjoys barking at anything that passes by the garden window. Carol's digital portfolio can be found on Instagram under the profile name of "art_brushed", original works of art at The Galena Antique Mall on Highway 20, and is open for commissioned paintings.
